

FELTON PERRY is a veteran actor with a distinguished career in theatre, television and film. In the mid-1960s he appeared in live television shows for Chicago's PBS station, WTTW. After his first movie appearance in MEDIUM COOL, Felton's affinity for intense character portrayal came to national attention in the film, WALKING TALL.

Other screen projects include MAGNUM FORCE, TOWERING INFERNO, DOWN AND OUT IN BEVERLY HILLS, ROBOCOP I, II & III, WEEDS, TALENT FOR THE GAME, and CHECKING OUT.

He co-starred in "Derby" an ABC-TV Movie of The Week, shot on location in South Africa.

Among his numerous TV credits, Felton was a regular on the innovative series HOOPERMAN, had recurring character roles in THE FRESH PRINCE OF BELAIR, and HANGIN' WITH MR. COOPER, and guest-starred in STRONG MEDICINE, WEST WING, NYPD BLUE, and JUDGING AMY.

Email Felton ➤

